LEARN ABOUT FINANCIAL AID AT FREE UM EVENTS

MISSOULA—

Financial Aid Night will be held at The University of Montana in December and January to provide information about assistance available for attending college or technical and trade schools.

The free events will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 5, and Tuesday, Jan. 8, in the University Center Ballroom, located on the third floor of the University Center.

Mick Hanson, director of UM's Financial Aid Office, and other University personnel will be at the events to give presentations and answer questions about the different kinds of aid available.

Hanson will discuss topics such as the Hope Scholarship and the Lifetime Learning Tax credit. He also will provide instructions for completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid and information about how the government computes students' estimated family contribution.

Computers will be available at the events for families to request their Personal Identification Numbers. Representatives from local lenders and the Student Assistance Foundation also will attend to visit with families.
